Dear Secretary General,

Subject: Global Volunteer Conference in Budapest, 15-17 September 2011

Thank you for your proposal for the upcoming Global Volunteer Conference to be held in Budapest on 15-17 September 2011. Following the review process, the Expert Panel has reviewed your proposal favourably.

We would like to confirm your participation in the conference and hope for your support in funding your National Society's participation in the conference.

We would like to invite you to register via the conference website at <http://snipurl.com/gvc2011>. You should also make visa and flight arrangements. Please be aware that Hungarian visas can take up to four weeks to process, so please do access the website and proceed with registering for the conference.

Ian Steed, Senior Officer, Volunteering Development will be in contact with you to discuss your contribution to the conference over the coming weeks.

During the conference we will have the opportunity to meet as IFRC colleagues to further our collective volunteering agenda. I look forward to meeting you in Budapest.

Yours sincerely,

Mukesh Kapila
Under Secretary General
