

NEWSLETTER

FRIDAY 9th APRIL

European Co-ordination Committe

Aging Population

- The ageing population in Europe and Central Asiapresented by Claudia Groschel. The presentation emphasized on the key challenges facing the European in order to deal with the phenomena of ageing population.
- Youth presented by Eero. The presentation took a look at Youth role in "Ageing Population", emphasising on the youth contribution for the future.

European Co-ordination Cor

- Netherlands: The Netherlands RC has a program called "Give A day" with the aim creating a relationships between young and old people in order to deal with social inclusion of the elderly people within the communities.
- Finland: The Finnish RCY has implemented programs such as youth visiting elderly houses as well as activities focusing on local needs.

uropean Co-ordination Con

EUROPEAN COOPERATION MEETING OF RED CROSS AND

RED CRESCENT SOCIETIES +C

- Switzerland: The Swiss RCY have responded to the ageing population trend through the activities such as putting in place "Alarm system" to maintain autonomous elderly people at home, visiting of volunteers (adult and young) to isolated elderly people and other several programs to accompany families taking care of an elderly person at home
- The Italian RCY has responded to implemented programs aiming to help people remain independent as they age.

European Co-ordination Committe

Migration presentation

 Presentation by Marcel Stefanic: The overview of the presentation focused on the importance of diversity and multicultural dialogue. It also took a look at the Working Groups of the Regional Conference topics and their links to S2020 and the works within the RC movement.

Workshop on Multicultural Dialogue

- British Red Cross had a workshop on "Positive Images", which is an EU funded project aiming at promoting positive attitudes among young people between the age of 12 and 25.
- The Bulgarian Red Cross Youth had provided through their workshop a training module for the activities related to fight against discrimination, promotion of tolerance and humanitarian values.

Roberta Zuchegna and Marcel Stefanic discussed more in details the preparation for the Regional conference, the recommendations and the action that the youth can take at the event

European Co-ordination Committe

Official Dinner

The official dinner has been provided by the Austrian RC and featured very nice Austrian music. Along with delicious food participants have been invited for drinks and the youth had very good time the whole evening

Pictures of the day

ECC

European Co-ordination Committee

